By Darrell Castle

February 3, 2023

Hello, this is Darrell Castle with today's Castle Report. This is Friday the 3rd day of February in the year of our Lord 2023. I will be talking today about a corporation named Pfizer and specifically about the mRNA vaccines designed supposedly to prevent Covid infection and transmission but which have been proven time and again to do neither.

Follow the science?

Almost every time an objection to the vaccines such as, they have not been properly tested and private test results are withheld from the end users, we were told to just forget our skepticism and follow the science. Dr. Fauci once famously remarked "I am the science." So today I will try to follow that advice and to the best of my ability follow "the science."

Covid mRNA vaccines are clearly the most failing medical product in the history of medical products, both in terms of efficacy and safety and should be withdrawn immediately as they cause an unprecedented level of harm including the death of young people and children.

Those are the words of professor Retsef Levi, an expert in analytics, risk management and health systems at Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). Levi has been on the faculty at MIT since 2006 and he has more than 30 years of experience in analyzing risk in the context of health systems and health policies.

He released a video he said to share his strong conviction that all Covid-19 mRNA vaccination programs should stop immediately. They completely fail to fulfill any of their advertised promises regarding efficacy. More importantly they should stop because of the mounting and indisputable evidence that they cause an unprecedented level of harm, including the death of young people and children.

The vaccines don't work!

So Dr. Levi is saying that the vaccines don't work as advertised because they do not prevent the disease they are advertised to prevent and they do not prevent transmission of the disease. Instead of being safe and effective as advertised they are actually causing a great deal of harm up to and including death especially in young healthy adults and children. They have been proven to cause myocarditis, an inflammation of the heart, which is the frequent cause of out-of-hospital sudden cardiac arrest, especially among young people.

This is the product the government of the United States required us to have injected into our bodies and that government still requires it in order to enter this country legally. The lives that were ruined, the damage to the nation's economy, the damage to the economies of states and municipalities and the destruction of small business with resultant job loss has been incalculable.

I don't know this for certain, but I would wager that Doctor Levi's employer (MIT) still requires the vaccine for admittance. Most people were locked in by the vaccine literally and figuratively because they could not work, attend school, or engage in social functions such as sporting events. The government said in essence take this kill shot or you are locked out of society. Good training for what is coming later? Maybe that's the case but time will tell.

An orchestrated response

Almost every country had invasive entry or travel requirements connected with virus testing and vaccine status. The "pandemic" itself was highly suspicious. From the very beginning it seemed that the response of the authorities was orchestrated around the world. It was as if we had many orchestras, but only one conductor. It gave off the aura of something extremely wicked. Most of the world's governments got together and created a black out against even discussing Covid and possible cures or treatments outside the vaccine. The blackout even extended to any scientific investigation of cures. Government bureaucrats and their captive media as well as celebrities and social media influencers worked to cancel and prevent all forms of discussion. Any attempt at investigative inquiry, whether done by doctors or scientists or lay people, was characterized as misinformation or disinformation, and therefore had to be canceled.

Health is the perfect vehicle for governments to ride into control of our lives because everyone wants good health and many of us are at the mercy of government for information to help us. If governments try to impose their control for purely ideological reasons through economic or military means many will not go along but tell us it's for our health and we are right there. All you have to do is tell them that if they don't follow directions they will get sick and die and so will their families. Is our government wicked enough to do that? Just follow the science folks.

The emergency will end (maybe)

The President of the United States has declared that the Covid emergency will be officially over on May 11, 2023. Yes, he's amazing that President Biden because he knows 3 months in advance the exact day it will be over. I don't know how he knows this but perhaps he just wants to give us 3 more months of "the science." So if you have not had enough of the useless nonsense and government mandated control you now have 3 more months to enjoy it.

Some people just will not accept the fact that this whole thing was and is about control and obedience, not health. The same day that the President made his announcement the U.S. Military Academy at West Point announced it would not lift its restriction on unvaccinated cadets. No person will be admitted without the vaccine and draconian harassment is being levied against the unvaccinated already at the academy. Some cadets report that they have been threatened with a general or even dishonorable discharge. If so that is illegal and a violation of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ) because only a general court-martial or conviction of a crime can impose a dishonorable discharge.

Project Veritas reveals Pfizer is playing with fire

Whether the government and its captive media have gotten the word or not the Covid narrative is collapsing thanks in part to Project Veritas. Project Veritas set up a discussion with Jordan Triston Walker under the guise of a date with one of their reporters. Mr. Walker is the Pfizer Director of Research and Development as well as the Strategic Operations MRNA Strategic Planner. In the video he describes what amounts to Pfizer's complete capture of the agencies that are supposed to regulate it.

He also describes Pfizer's plan to mutate viruses so that Pfizer's profits from selling its vaccines will never end or be reduced. Just continue to invent new viruses and enhance old ones until they are more lethal and the government will buy your products to inject into their people. This video confession cracks open "the science" around Pfizer's gain-of-function research program. These people are actually enhancing and intensifying the lethality of viruses so they can kill and injure more of us and they can then sell us their products that won't work as they promise. How evil is that?

Pfizer embodies the entire industry

Dr. Robert Malone describes the entire pharmaceutical industry:

Devoid of empathy. Avarice its purpose. Its face glowing with joy, oblivious to the profound human tragedy it enables, reveling in the damage wrought to the web of humanity and the structure of a nation. Oblivious to the horror embodied in its words, in the very fabric of its language. Possessed by a deep belief in its own entitlement. Oozing dizzy narcissism. Celebrating corruption. Completely devoid of wisdom, introspection, or self-awareness of the fundamental perversion of its soul.

Dr. Malone was asked to be a part of the Project Veritas video which shows the Pfizer Director discussing making a "mutating" Covid-19 virus for new vaccines via "Directed Evolution" research. Malone tells us that discussions of the deep evil which underlies the Covid crises has become common among many communities around the world as people are waking up.

The Pfizer man shows brass

Once again, the director from Pfizer and his video explains "the science" to us laypersons, but with one note of caution.

You have to be, like, very controlled to make sure that this virus that you mutate doesn't create something that, like, you know just goes everywhere which I suspect is the way the virus started in Wuhan to be honest, like, it makes no sense that this virus popped out of nowhere." Then he goes on and gets to the bottom line.

Because, like, sometimes there were just mutations that pop up and we're not prepared for it, like with delta or omicron and things like that. So, who knows? I mean, either way, it's going to be a cash cow. Covid will probably be a cash cow for us for awhile going forward, which I obviously like.

So folks, this man is telling us that a pharmaceutical giant is creating viruses that destroy lives and economies and businesses and restructure the entire world so it can possibly make money trying to prevent the viruses it creates.

Deny and be ...

Pfizer did issue a statement in response saying that they did not perform gain of function or directed evolution but they did not comment on the good Dr. Director's other assertions. Pfizer now quietly admits they did not test whether the vaccine prevented transmission. This company said and did nothing while government and corporate media told us the opposite so I wonder if there is anything behind Covid vaccines besides money because it sounds pretty evil to me.

The elite, the wise ones among us always pretend they have some special knowledge that others do not have. In the Middle Ages it was the Latin Mass and the Latin Bible. People could not read Latin or understand the Mass and that gave the Priests and the Church a great deal of power over the lives of ordinary people. Today, instead of Latin it is "the science." Trust the science they tell us, after all who do you think you are to question the experts. We were made to feel like the ignorant masses of ancient times, but they found that we were not so ignorant.

The unsung heroes

Many reputable and highly qualified medical and scientific experts came forward to tell us the truth. It is also worthy of note that it is not the unvaccinated who are dropping dead all over the world but the vaccinated. Believe it or not in this country babies are being injected with this killer poison. Yes, its true some parents are so uninformed, so unaware that they will deliver their own babies up to the vaccine killers. Why are people across the world so blindly trusting of authority when authority is so obviously evil.

Finally, folks, in answer to the question of how can people be this evil they actually believe they are on the moral high ground. They are the good guys. They think they are saving the planet. Unless we across the broad spectrum of society come together to resist their evil plans for us they might just kill us all.

At least that's the way I see it.

Until next time folks,

This is Darrell Castle.
