

Politicians don't want to go outside of their scripted talking points—their agenda would fall apart

“Political language...is designed to make lies sound truthful... and to give an appearance of solidity to pure wind.” So said George Orwell. And politicians know this and practice it.

Politicians refuse to appear live

Corey Booker, Nancy Pelosi, Al Franken, Keith Ellison...the list goes on of those who refuse to be on the Sons of Liberty Radio show. Some will take shots at my national platform through the corporate-owned media, but will not confront me on LIVE radio. Why is that? They do not want to be exposed for who they really are (Luke 12:2) nor do they desire to subject themselves to that which is foreign to their Communistic, totalitarian agenda, namely, the Constitution and its enumerated laws.

The Constitution is as foreign to these Redcoats and Tories (Luke 22:48) that have sold the American people out to a power as foreign to them as the tyrant across the pond named King George was to our Forefathers and the 13 colonies while establishing our move to establish Independence.

How many times have you heard these politicians claim that Americans complain about making reference to constitutional law while debating away the American people's rights? Never.

Conventional outlets and questions from a script

One must remember that while appearing on one of the media networks (NBC, FOX, MSNBC, CNN, ABC), that it is safe for them to appear there. They know that the questions will be tame and within the confines of their scripted political talking points while keeping them safely in their agenda's parameters.

They do not want to talk about the US Constitution because they do not know the US Constitution. They want to talk in the deceptive language that they have created, which the American people have at length accepted.

Their talking points must be predicated upon usurping God's moral law (Exodus 20), unconstitutional democracy (what the people want), unconstitutional debate and premised on an unconstitutional diplomacy (seduction in another guise), fair play, sportsmanlike conduct (fraternizing with the enemy) and conversation while tearing down American law and putting unconstitutional un-American policies in its place. They do this all while further enslaving the American people (Hosea 4:6).

The Constitution is foreign to these politicians

How foreign is the US Constitution to these paid actors in the service to their perspective special interest groups in the political world of the "Circus of Politics" in the guise of representing the American people?

Let Me Show You...

Maryland Representative Roscoe Bartlett from the 6th district once told me that while on the federal floor in Washington D.C. he quoted the US Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, which he always carries with him in his shirt pocket. When he was finished, he turned and began to exit the building and the floor recorder asked the question, "What was that that you were quoting?"

Friends, the US Constitution is as foreign to these said US representatives as Scripture is recited and exhibited by the devil himself (2 Corinthians 11:14). No wonder why this country is being turned into a living hell (Proverbs 9:17).
