

The Ruse of Spontaneous Rage

The violence in our streets – the theft, physical harm, and the wanton destruction – are not new to civilization. The riots and criminality did not arise spontaneously by reason of sympathy, morality or righteousness. Someone is playing the “players,” manipulating them with their own smaller grievances and a sense of anonymity. And that someone has a far greater purpose.

So-called spontaneous rage had a patsy: Herschel Feibel Grynszpan

It has been said that the assassination of Ernst vom Rath, a lower-level German diplomat stationed in Paris, was the spark for Kristallnacht. We now recognize that as a tactic, a grievance to use for a course of action. It is the means of manufacturing spontaneous rage. The backstory begins with Herschel Feibel Grynszpan, a 17-year-old German-born refugee of Polish-Jewish parents. His family had sent him to an uncle in Paris to escape imminent persecution. His parents were now among the many thousands of Polish Jews expelled and abandoned at the German-Polish border, refused entry and sanctuary in their native land.

Perhaps Grynszpan was distraught over his parents' situation as well as his own, and fearful of the future. Grynszpan bought a gun and went to vom Rath's office for assistance. Then, when vom Rath denied him, he shot vom Rath in despair. Vom Rath was a minor bureaucrat, but this act was to be used as the spur, the justification, for Kristallnacht and all the unspeakable brutality to follow.

The Nazis exploit this so-called spontaneous rage

Antisemitism, the term coined by German journalist Wilhelm Marr in 1879, and anti-Marxism, had become a platform of the Nazi party by 1930. The “master race” was advocating the extermination of:

- Jews,
- homosexuals,

- Romani,
- blacks,
- Jehovah's Witnesses,
- the physically and mentally handicapped, and
- all political opponents.

By 1933, Hitler was chancellor and Fuehrer of the Third Reich, and had planned a pogrom for 10 November. This date was Martin Luther's birthday and the anniversary of:

1. The infamous Beer Hall Putsch on 8 November, followed by
2. A march on 9 November, 1923.

But that was also the day that vom Rath died of his gunshot wounds. So Foreign Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels saw this as:

- The perfect catalyst to declare it a Jewish attack on the German people, and
- The thrust for all Germans to spontaneously rise to mete out their own justice.

The two-day pogrom begins

However, this was a well-orchestrated plot that resulted in a two-day pogrom throughout:

- Germany,
- The annexed Austria, and
- The occupied Czechoslovakian Sudetenland.

The bands of thugs had their weapons and sledgehammers, and their orders. They:

- Ransacked 1600 synagogues, setting some afire with worshipers inside;
- Wrecked cemeteries, smashed tombstones, unearthed and defiled corpses;
- Broke windows, looted thousands of homes and businesses

but with commands to remove archives and artifacts, which would be appropriated for the Reich. Thirty thousand Jewish men were rounded up and put on waiting trains for concentration camps. The government blamed the Jews for the pogrom and fined them the equivalent of:

$37 trillion for damages, and

$37 trillion for clearing the wreckage.

Authorities sent another 100,000 Jews to death camps.

Spontaneous rage version two: in the United States

Today there is a concerted effort to reduce America into such chaos. The ultimate purpose is to bring down the prevailing government. When the left, with all their conspiracies and hoaxes, could not unseat President Trump, another approach became necessary. That approach relied upon the tried-and-tested method of spontaneous rage.

Derek Chauvin, patsy

Officer Derek Chauvin and two onlooking policemen were apprehended for the death of George Floyd. These were merely the grievance and the stooge. Someone had long planned, organized, contracted and funded the far grander events. Which included provisions of bricks and assorted weaponry. The planners had prepared and were waiting to play a group they had conditioned to respond in rage to the fitting stimulus.

The death toll

The left used the black population as the most vulnerable to respond to Floyd's death. How do we know that? During the first six months in Chicago, 1,500 people died from gunshots, 350 more than 2019. And our population stayed silent. Alarming rates of physical assault against Jews over the past year aroused no comments. Eighteen people died in Chicago on Sunday, May 31, including:

- David Dorn, 77, retired St. Louis police captain;
- Calvin L Horton Jr., 43, in Minneapolis;
- Javar Harrell, 21, while sitting in his car;
- Federal officer Dave Patrick Underwood, 53, while securing a US courthouse;
- Chris Beaty, 38, former Indiana University offensive lineman, and children.

And barely a word was heard.

No resistance to this spontaneous rage

Americans in lockdown mode due to the COVID-19 virus offered no interference to the masked rioters' violence. The Black Lives Matter group, inspired by FBI-listed Assata Shakur, showed its sympathy to only one black. They thereby negated their alleged mission, and any of the other so-called altruistic issues – police brutality and racial inequality. Taught to hate America, their destruction of Civil War monuments evolved into destruction of:

|| Monument Avenue – casualty of revolution

- Non-Confederate historical figures,
- Courthouses and police stations,

and numerous nights of broken glass, looted stores, thousands of law enforcement officers seriously injured (some even blinded). The perpetrators wounded thousands of victims and caused financial loss into the billions of dollars.

The set-up: Common Core

The Obama administration duplicated the Nazi book burning campaign of the 1930s by the German Student Union. How? By replacing the curricula of previous generations with dumbed down courses that produce students who cannot:

- Define the American Civil War,
- Identify who won the world wars, or
- Name the founding documents that grant them the freedoms they're ceding to tyranny.

Acts of rage with pre-planning, not spontaneous rage

At this writing, the insurgents are also:

- Burning bibles and the American flag, and
- Fighting against our protective police forces, and suggestions that are antithetical to their Marxist ideas.

They are learning to hate America, that America created slavery. They are not learning that the US banned slavery and our doctrines and laws grant freedom to all. For now, they are cancelling those with whom they disagree, and beating others on the streets. How long before they move on to burning people?

How to prepare children for spontaneous rage

Leftist-progressives are not only primarily responsible for stoking these recent fires of chaos. Indeed they have long:

- Undermined the family unit,
- Denied children friendship and camaraderie,
- Replaced class communication with computer time,
- Promoted the study of multiculturalism and "inclusion" that purposely result in divisiveness and activism, and
- Replaced past studies with socialist concepts.

And they marginalize and victimize children by means of:

- Cultural stereotypes,
- Racial and religious prejudices,

- Male-toxicity shaming,
- White supremacist guilt,
- Low-salaried unskilled workers and underpaid females,
- Financial jealousies,
- LGBTQ issues,
- Rioting against Americanism and President Trump,
- Gun confiscation,
- Abortion, and
- What has finally come to light – shaming, and sexualizing beginning with the very young, resulting in myriad mental health disorders.

This is revolution against America's continued existence. Marxists founded it, and people like:

- The Nation of Islam,
- Antifa, and
- Black Lives Matter,

each with its own agenda but all for destruction, buoy it. They come:

- Filled with anger,
- Well-orchestrated and -armed, and
- Dismissive of the whites who fought and died for freedom for all people.

Lest we assume this scenario of manufactured spontaneity is unique, here's an extraordinary film that authenticates the advance planning and preparation that was two years in the making.

Islamists made themselves experts at stoking hatred

It is prudent to recall that Islamists continue to wage vicious attacks against others with the same ideas of provocation and vengeance. Muslims have long held that they attack because Israel was established in 1948 on what they claim is Arab land. Yet long before 1948, the Islamic Middle East was bathed in blood. Furthermore, Mohammed continued north into Europe to leave their mark against western civilization and our morality. Most importantly, the collective left has pitted our own people against each other. They use our naïve, uninformed children and young adults as their army. Our elites have provided:

- An atmosphere of a contagion to increase the fears and compliance, and
- A narrative to decrease our protection.

Behind the scenes are George Soros, and the monied globalists and technocrats. They have the local backing of Democrat governors and mayors. Who disallow our protective forces from interrupting the mayhem, and indeed encourage it.

The goal of the spontaneous rage scam

We have come to understand that the issue is the revolution, the utter destruction. The motives, the causes, are merely the weapons. Their purpose is to:

- Change America and our Judeo-Christian civilization,
- Dismantle the family,
- Remove our security and leave the citizenry helpless, and
- Replace them with whatever despotic regime prevails – communism, Islam, globalism, anarchism, a combination or something new – whatever survives the conflagration.
