

THE EAGLE DISSECTS GOP FOR GOVERNOR DEBATE

May 26, 2021

TPATH REMARKS

THE EAGLE

If the debate between Hirsh Singh and Jack Ciattarelli revealed anything, and it certainly did, it was that the Republican voters in NJ have only one option on primary day, June 8, 2021. That revelation has made it crystal clear Hirsh Singh is the only conservative Republican in this race.

Jack Ciattarelli made it abundantly clear he's a man void of a platform or any semblance of a vision. What was especially shocking Ciattarelli declared 'He didn't want to be Governor unless he had a down the line Republican Legislature. What exactly does that mean? If the people of NJ vote him into office but fail to give the Republicans control, will he just sit idle during his term or give up his seat to the Democrats? A very peculiar statement.

On the other hand Hirsh Singh made it clear he isn't worried about the makeup of the legislature and will use the power of the Governorship to get things done.

When Jack was questioned on the Second Amendment and the right to carry, instead of addressing the issue, we heard the same old diatribe; 'I'll have my Attorney General look into it.' Does anyone believe he has never pondered this issue and needs time to look into it? If that is the case he is ill prepared to be a governor. Or is it more likely, like Chris Smith and many other RINOs here in New Jersey, he is anti-Second Amendment and will not show his true colors until duped voters put him in office.

When Hirsh Singh was asked the same question, Hirsh Singh made it crystal clear, on day one he will issue an Executive Order restoring our Second Amendment right to carry. A right stolen from the people of New Jersey in 1966.

On another extremely important issue Hirsh Singh has heard the 'silent scream' of children in the womb. Late term abortions will be terminated by an Executive Order on day one of his administration. A Governor Singh will not need a Republican controlled legislature to govern. Trump did it, and so will Singh.

There's only one candidate capable of not just ousting Murphy but also the left wing baggage the Democrats will try to leave behind. Last night's debate made that abundantly clear. That candidate: Hirsh Singh.

Hirsh Singh, in the same mode as does Donald Trump, strikes fear into hearts of the political establishment which is made up of scoundrels from both parties. NJ patriots will help flame that fear. It is long overdue.

As so many of the good people of New Jersey ponder flight to a more free and constitutional state, they must understand that we now have a wonderful opportunity to get this state on track. Stay here, fight for our beautiful state. We now have the tool to make NJ great. That tool is Candidate Singh.

Hirsh Singh is a man of vision as well as action. That debate brought this concept to the fore. Not once did he waver on any issue. How refreshing was that? Ciattarelli's game plan was built upon not just unsubstantiated claims but entirely fabricated ones. Isn't that precisely the mode of corruption and dishonesty that has so undermined our state? No matter what affiliation one claims to represent, New Jersey has had enough.

On yet another vitally important issue Hirsh Singh has made it clear he is for school choice. Unlike "Duplicitous Jack" he doesn't fear the teacher's union. Hirsh declared that the misdirecting of school funds will stop under his governorship.

Jack Ciattarelli's vacuous responses to questions on crucial issues makes it difficult to believe he is not an establishment puppet subjected to and controlled by ex-governor Chris Christie. As Jack rightly, but not too brightly put it, in the debate: "Chris Christie is the leader of the Republican Party here in New Jersey." If that is so, and it most likely is, it fortifies even greater the need for change. Republicans placating to liberals have been the norm. It's time to make it rare.

On that point every Republican committee man or woman should be asking why their organization endorsed Ciattarelli without even talking to Hirsh. How many did that? All 21. What a disgrace! Every county GOP Organization needs to be contacted and told to explain such incompetence.

Most noticeable during the debate, outside of repeatedly calling Hirsh Singh a liar, Ciattarelli repeatedly stated that only the establishment would be able to raise enough campaign money to win elections. This outrageous statement is yet another reason to help New Jersey break the chains of the establishment. If all of NJ's patriots send Hirsh Singh a few bucks, he nor us will need to buckle under to their tried and failed agenda.
